Headline:
Dry and bright on Thursday, feeling fresher than of late.

Today:
Another dry day. Cloud clearing from Moray and western Aberdeenshire through the morning to give a sunny afternoon. Cloud may well linger across eastern Aberdeenshire. Feeling fresher than of late, a rather cool northeasterly breeze along the coast. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Tonight:
Plenty of late evening sunshine across Moray and western Aberdeenshire. Cloudier in the east, particular north of Aberdeen. Cloud becomes more extensive overnight, although some clear spells in the west. Minimum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Friday:
Cloud burning back to the east coast in the the morning where some patchy cloud may remain for much of the day. Otherwise dry and sunny with lighter winds. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Largely dry and settled with light winds. A good deal of sunshine on Saturday. Cloudier on Sunday and Monday, perhaps the odd spot of drizzle Sunday night.
